

" BURRELL SPEAKS" Speakers

Dawn Osborne - Keynote Speaker, CEO, Entrepreneur and Motivational Speaker has committed over 15 years to raising awareness in many communities as an accomplished development professional. Her specific areas of expertise are grants/proposal management, contract compliance/monitoring and the provision of technical assistance to non-profit organizations. She has raised more than 25 million dollars for area agencies - both locally and nationally. Over the years she has become known for taking small non-profits and using out of the box strategies to increase revenue and expand services. In addition to her grant writing expertise she specializes in raising unrestricted dollars through the production of special events and the development of major fund-raising campaigns. She has worked on events ranging from the 1984 Summer Olympics in Los Angeles to the 2006 Spirit of Peace Awards. Ms. Osborne has assisted numerous corporations and non-profit agencies in the development and implementation of strategic plans for fund development, donor cultivation, and corporate marketing. She has written and directed multi-million dollar social service programs for non-profit agencies across the country. Her goal is to position organizations for long lasting corporate partnerships.

Courtney Parker - As a writer on the Emmy Award Winning television show Law & Order: Criminal Intent, Courtney is also a Producer, Author and Speaker specializing in self-help, inspiration and creative fiction & non-fiction. As a celebrity ghostwriter, Courtney has written or collaborated with such bestselling authors Terrell Owens, Super-Producer Teddy Riley, Nikki Turner, Victoria Christopher Murray, Olympic gold medalist Maurice Greene and Nancey Flowers. Courtney accreditations include Twilight Moods, Runnin' Game, Always Hard and her newest novel "He Was My Man First co-authored with Nancey Flowers. She has also co-authored the Best Selling fitness book T.O.'s Finding Fitness and the children's book "Little T Learns to Share.

Natalie Gouche - founder of Mogul Mom - a social media services firm in Culver City, California. As President, Natalie comes to us with expertise in social media and marketing for the new age. She is presently serving as Social Media Consultant to GoldTone Entertainment, LLC. Present & Prior clients include - Wealthy Minds Clothing, Mom's Advice Magazine, ECMG Productions, Author M.J. Duffy, G3 Green Gardens Group, Pain to Power Ministries, Lost Love, Soulmate, Karl Robinson Ministry Marketing Coach, Ribbon Gift & Incentive, Top Insurance Contracts and PRP Wine. Natalie served as the youngest West Coast President in Networking Marketing Company Ardyss International. As media mogul her training courses are in LinkedIn, Twitter, Facebook, Video Marketing, Social Media Management, Content Coaching), Social Media trainer for Ardyss International Independent Representatives (2008-2010), Social Media trainer for Future 20/20 non profit and L.O.W. non profit.

Sherrie' Darnise Burrell is Principal and Founder of Sherrie Burrell Consulting, and Women of Excellence/Men, Inc . She is also business partner with Mario Rosemond of GoldTone Entertainment, LLC in Burbank, California. She has served as Sr. VP of Communications for GoldTone as well as public relations consultant for Tavis Smiley Presents. In January 2011 Sherrie launched "Burrell Speaks" - a national speakers/lecture bureau focusing on Top Executives, Authors and Professional Speakers. She is working as founding member for the Joseph Rosemond Foundation with special program The Andrea Rosemond Project for Breast Cancer.

She is a member of the National Association of Professional Business Women representing Beverly Hills, California; Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, National Council of Negro Women, Professional Business Women of California, The Public Relations Society of America, and Board Director for the Joseph Rosemond Foundation. She is certified as a professional editor and proofreader and certified Power Business Writing Skills recipient. She is an alumni of Northeast Louisiana University in Monroe majoring in Science and Architectural Design.